

Urban Fox on the scent of another big victory

URBAN FOX was a surprise winner at the Curragh on her most recent start, but it certainly would not be a shock if she were to follow up in the Qatar Nassau Stakes at Goodwood tomorrow.

The four-year-old began her career with James Tate, showing plenty of potential in 15 starts for that trainer, but following her sale for 425,000 guineas last autumn, Urban Fox is now with William Haggas.

And she has wasted little time in a repaying a chunk of that sale price, winning a decent Ascot handicap on her return in May before rolling on to finish fourth in the Duke of Cambridge at the Royal meeting.

However, Urban Fox posted a career high when landing the Pretty Polly Stakes last time, beating subsequent Irish Oaks second Forever Together by a comfortable three and a quarter lengths.

It did not appear to be the toughest Group One on paper, but Urban Fox asserted her authority that day and this is an ideal opportunity to prove that was no fluke.

Sabre fell slightly short at Royal Ascot but is worth another shot stepped up to six furlongs in the Qatar Richmond Stakes.

He was successful over five furlongs on his initial outing but then came unstuck in the National Stakes before a tardy start saw him also edged out in the Windsor Castle.

Precious Ramotswe can reverse recent Haydock form with God Given in the Qatar Lillie Langtry Stakes.

The pair were third and second respectively behind Horseplay in the Lancashire Oaks, with a length and three-quarters separating them.

Precious Ramotswe perhaps found the good to firm ground a bit on the fast side that day, so the recent rain is a definite plus for her.

Rock Eagle catches the eye in the opening Matchbook Best Value Exchange Handicap.

Winner of two of his three starts to date, Ralph Beckett's charge showed his class when triumphing off an unsuitably slow pace in a novice heat at Windsor last time.

Arigato can follow up his Sandown victory of last week in the Smarkets Betting Exchange Handicap at Epsom.

William Jarvis' charge was a six-length victor after making all last Thursday, and is sure to go up more than the 6lb penalty he shoulders here once reassessed.
